In Brief

Cherengin Hills Convention & Spa Resort sits on 11 acres of land surrounded by thick rainforest. Tucked in a valley between Genting Highlands and Berjaya Hills Resort, Cherengin Hills Convention & Spa Resort sits at the tail end of the majestic Titiwangsa Range at an altitude of 1600 to 1800 ft above sea level. With nature in abundance it is no surprise that the resort promotes itself as the ideal venue where business goes hand in hand with leisure. The resort is almost like a sanctuary, enjoying a population of only about 3,000 people. Every day is a cool day here with the temperature dropping to 22 degrees Celsius on certain nights. Rushing brooks and waterfalls, this is where your journey begins.
